DAY 2 - WED, SEPT 16 - MONTEBELLO

A wonderful breakfast buffet awaits you this morning before you begin your day.
 9:00 am To begin our stay, we'll begin our stay with a wonderful guided tour so you'll know your way around the resort.
 10:00 am Visit the Manoir Papineau. The Manoir Papineau is a large manor overlooking the Ottawa River at Montebello, Quebec, Canada on the site of the Château Montebello Hotel. It was the home of Louis-Joseph Papineau from 1846 until his death. Set in Montebello, halfway between Gatineau and Montréal, Continues...

Continued...Manoir Papineau is a page straight out of 19th century history that opens right before your eyes, the grand estate of Louis-Joseph Papineau, the man who was to become a leading figure in Canadian politics. Flanked by four towers, the manor house rules over its surrounding landscape with its landscaped garden, spacious lawns, wooded areas and a stream. Take an excursion into the life of the head of Francophone patriots. On the menu: a guided tour of the manor and its outbuildings. Nostalgia is guaranteed.

Cap Bonsecours is the site of the manor, granary, family museum, tea house and a former bell tower, while on the surrounding lands are the gardener's cottage and the funeral chapel. We'll explore every corner of this beautiful seigneurial estate.

12:30 pm We're off to Park Omega, www.parcomega.ca a unique experience in the heart of nature, culture and history of Quebec. There will be time for lunch on your own in the delightful cafeteria overlooking the wilderness! Parc Omega lets you discover the wildlife of Canada such as moose, elk, bison, wolves and bears all within their natural environment. We will be joined by an Omega guide, trained to share their knowledge about all the beautiful species, they will accompany us throughout our visit. With their experience, they can quickly spot animals that are usually difficult to see. We'll return to the Chateau Montebello where you can enjoy the resort this afternoon! Indoors or outdoors, there is something for everyone.

There are optional activities (rates apply) such as cycling, horseback riding, etc. or you spoil yourself at the spa!

5:00 pm This evening we'll enjoy an included dinner before we return to Le Chateau Montebello. After a wonderful evening we'll return to our resort for an evening of leisure!

DAY 3 - THURS, SEPT 17 - MONTEBELLO

A wonderful breakfast buffet awaits you this morning at your leisure as we begin the day. You will have the morning to relax and enjoy this wonderful world famous log cabin!

11:00 am We'll bid Au Revoir to the Gatineau region and begin our travels homeward.

1:30 pm A visit to the town of Merrickville is a delightful stop this afternoon!

5:00 pm Approximate arrival back in Kingston with fond memories your Chateau Montebello experience!
