Oktoberfest at Concordia Club, with origins dating to 1873 in Kitchener, the Concordia Club, as its name implies, is a harmony of members whose backgrounds are from all regions of German-speaking Europe. As a Centennial project, the club created a large Oktoberfest celebration in 1967.

While other local clubs had smaller versions, Concordia developed Oktoberfest "on a major scale", says club past president Werner Schlueter, "so we rented what looked like a large circus tent and that was the launch of Oktoberfest." The considerable success of the event prompted the Kitchener Chamber of Commerce to pick up on the idea and the rest, as they say, is Gemütlichkeit history. We'll enjoy an afternoon of Entertainment with a buffet lunch!
